

JEFFREY SCOTT LEIDER, M.D.

EMPLOYMENT:

Physician/Surgeon at the American Ear, Nose & Throat Institute 1993-Present
Consultant Physician Reviewer for Michigan Peer Review
Organization (MPRO) 1998-Present

ACADEMIC:

Clinical Assistant Professor, Department of Otolaryngology
Wayne State University 1993-Present

EDUCATION:

Michigan State University, B.S. Physiology East Lansing, Michigan 1980-1984
University of Michigan Medical School, M.D. Ann Arbor, Michigan 1984-1988

TRAINING:

Residency in General Surgery Wayne State University, Detroit, Mi. 1988-1989
Residency in Otolaryngology Wayne State University, Detroit, Mi. 1989-1993

HOSPITAL PRIVILEGES:

Children's Hospital of Michigan
Harper Hospital
Huron Valley Hospital
William Beaumont Hospital

BOARD CERTIFICATION:

American Board of Otolaryngology May 1994

RESEARCH:

“Cochlear Anatomic and Physiologic Changes Associated with Auditory Deprivation” with Dr. Richard Altschuler at the Kresge Hearing Research Institute in Ann Arbor, Michigan, summer 1987

“The Effect of Swallowing Bolus and Head Position on Eustachian Tube Function”,
Wayne State University Jan-Mar., 1991

PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES:

American Academy of Otolaryngology
American Medical Association
Michigan Otolaryngological Society
Oakland County Medical Society

PREMEDICAL:

Phillips Residency Hall Program Director 1982

PREMEDICAL EMPLOYMENT:

Windsurfing Instructor (IWSS Certified with Water Safety Instructor) and Assistant Programming Director, Camp Tamakwa, Algonquin Park, Can. 1982-1985

PREMEDICAL HONORS:

Dean's List for academic achievement at Michigan State University for 12 consecutive quarters.
Tower Guard Honor Society (MSU's most prestigious freshmen honor)
Golden Key Honor Society
Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES:

Volunteer at Ingham Hospital, East Lansing, Michigan 1982
Director of Sports Clinic at Elmhurst Elementary School, East Lansing
Michigan 1993
American Medical Students Association 1984-1987
Phi Delta Epsilon Medical Fraternity Fund raising for the National Arthritis Foundation 1985-1986
Washtenaw County free camp physicals for underprivileged children 1987
Member of The Student Surgical Forum 1987