

Rhonda B. Levy-Larson, Ph.D.

Education:

The University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana
B.S. in Psychology
May 1978

Bradley University, Peoria, IL
M.A. in Clinical and Community Psychology
Dec. 1980

The University of Oklahoma / Health Sciences Center, Oklahoma City
One year of doctoral work in Experimental Biological-Psychology

The University of Health Sciences / The Chicago Medical School
North Chicago, IL
Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology
June 1989

Licensure:

Michigan License # 6301006751

Employment History:

1996 – present	Rhonda B. Levy-Larson, Ph.D., P.C. Southfield, MI Clinical Neuropsychologist
1999 – present	Michigan Evaluation Group, Inc. Neuropsychological Examiner
1994 – 1996	Rehab Pathways Group, Inc. Testpointe Diagnostics Southfield, MI Clinical Neuropsychologist
1993 – 1994	Great Lakes Regional Rehabilitation Hospital Southfield, MI Director, Dept. of Behavioral Science Director, Neurorehabilitation Services Program

- 1989 – 1993 Providence Hospital
Dept. of Behavioral Medicine
Southfield, MI
Clinical Neuropsychologist
- 1987 – 1989 Rehabilitation Institute of Michigan
Dept. of Psychology
Detroit, MI
Staff Psychologist
- 1986 – 1987 Henry Ford Hospital
Division of Neuropsychology
Detroit, MI
Neuropsychological Consultant

Memberships in Professional Organizations:

American Psychological Association
Divisions: Clinical, Rehabilitation, Neuropsychology, Law

International Neuropsychological Society

Michigan Psychological Association

Michigan Women Psychologists

Clinical Internships:

- 1985 – 1986 Henry Ford Hospital
Dept. of Psychiatry
Division of Neuropsychology
Detroit, MI
- 1979 – 1980 Galesburg Mental Health Center
Galesburg, IL

Training:

- 1984 – 1985 University of Illinois Medical Center
Dept. of Neurology
Chicago, IL
- 1983 – 1984 Illinois State Psychiatric Institute
Chicago, IL

1983 – 1983 Veterans Administration Medical Center
Central Testing Laboratory
North Chicago, IL

1982 – 1983 Human Services Dept.
Hoffman Estates, IL

1982 – 1982 Veterans Administration Medical Center
Acute Psychology Unit
North Chicago, IL

1975 – 1975 Developmental Services Center
Champaign, IL

Research Practicums:

1984 – 1984 University of Health Sciences /
The Chicago Medical School
Dept. of Psychology

1982 – 1982 University of Health Sciences /
The Chicago Medical School
Dept. of Psychology

Honors and Awards:

University Fellowship, University of Oklahoma / Health Sciences Center
1980 – 1981

Runner-up: Graduate Student Paper Competition at the 14th Oklahoma Psychological Association Convention
Oklahoma City, OK
November 1980

Teaching Experience:

1978 – 1979 Bradley University
Dept. of Psychology

Research Experience:

1984 – 1985 Topic: Hemispheric processing of tactile-spatial function in adults
1984 – 1984 Topic: Screening medical students for cognitive function
1983 – 1983 Topic: Interhemispheric allocation of attention and arousal
1980 – 1981 Topic: Neuropsychological function in women who abuse alcohol
1978 – 1979 Topic: Tactile-spatial function in children

1977 – 1977 Topic: The development of a behavior rating system for use with an adult psychiatric population

Bibliography:

Publication

Etaugh, C. and Levy, R.B. (1981). Hemispheric specialization for tactile-spatial processing in preschool children.
Perceptual and Motor Skills, 53, 621 –622.

Masters Thesis

Hemispheric processing of tactile-spatial information in preschool boys and girls.
Bradley University, Peoria, IL

Doctoral Dissertation

Patterns of neuropsychological and psychosocial function in school children with epilepsy.
University of Health Sciences / The Chicago Medical School
North Chicago, IL

Professional Presentations:

(details provided in curriculum vitae)